Fairmont
LE MONTREUX PALACE

Situated on the shores of Lake Geneva overlooking a magnificent view of the Alps, Fairmont Le Montreux Palace is a hotel of distinction. Possessing an incomparable worldwide reputation characterised by its 236 recently renovated luxury rooms and suites and one of the finest gastronomic experiences, Fairmont Le Montreux Palace is a truly enchanting place. Its three restaurants and bar offer a vast choice of delights able to satisfy even the most demanding of palates.

The hotel opened its doors on 19 March 1906. The Palace was connected to the Hotel du Cygne building by the Grand Hall, the salon de Musique and the ballrooms, all richly decorated. It also offered the utmost comfort for the period, such as private bathrooms, heating and electricity. For this reason, it was considered to be a modern hotel. The superb 'Art Nouveau' and 'Neo-Baroque' halls hosted lavish celebrations: masquerade balls, fancy dress balls, concerts and many other events.

Clientele came from around the world: European aristocrats, Russian princes, New York bankers, Maharajas and more. On 20 July 1936, the Treaty of the Dardanelles (a peace treaty between Greece, Turkey, England, France and Russia) was signed at Le Montreux Palace in the Salon Rotary.

Today, its 15 reception rooms welcoming between 5 and 1,200 people retain their splendour. It offers its guests two distinct ambiances: the Palace with its Belle-Epoque rooms and the Petit Palais with its modern decor.
