

DESTINATION AND ATTRACTIONS

Nestled 50 miles (80 km) south of Los Angeles and 85 miles (136 km) north of San Diego, Newport Beach came into being in 1870. Today, Newport Beach epitomizes the true essence of Southern California living. Featuring nine miles of pristine beaches, the city is home to a wide variety of attractions, world-class dining and shopping, the largest small yacht harbor in the world and inviting year-round weather. Featuring numerous seaside villages and Balboa Island, each defined by their own character, Newport Beach helps visitors—whether traveling for fun or for business—find their place in the sun.
