SAN FRANCISCO

CLASSIC BY DESIGN, CONTEMPORARY BY SPIRIT.

CLASSIC BY DESIGN, CONTEMPORARY BY SPIRIT.

Having first opened its doors in 1907, The Fairmont San Francisco is proud to be an integral centerpiece of the City by the Bay. From its role as a command center for city officials planning the rise of San Francisco following the Great Earthquake to its distinction as the headquarters for the drafting of the United Nations Charter, The Fairmont continues to make history on both the local and world stage. Known as “The White House of the West,” The Fairmont is the San Francisco residence for US Presidents and world leaders as well as the stars of sports, stage and screen. When on site at the hotel, we welcome you to visit our “Heritage Hall,” which chronicles the rich history of San Francisco and its quintessential hotel through rare photos and memorabilia. In this way, we invite you to be a part of the past, as well as the future of Fairmont San Francisco.

BREATHTAKING
SURROUNDINGS

Known for its spectacular setting surrounded by the tranquil waters of the bay, San Francisco sits amid the peaks and valleys of dozens of picturesque hills. With some of the world's most recognized landmarks punctuating the horizon, including Alcatraz, Coit Tower and the Palace of Fine Arts, it's easy to navigate the city's many interesting neighborhoods.

San Francisco's vibrant cultural heritage, combined with its incredible architecture and stunning views, make it one of the most popular cities to visit in the world. And located atop prestigious Nob Hill is one of the Crown Jewels of San Francisco. Recognized as the original Fairmont Hotel, it is as much an icon of this great city as the Cable Cars and the Golden Gate Bridge.

WORLD-RENOWNED FLAGSHIP

An $85 million restoration returned the original Fairmont Hotel back to its turn-of-the-century splendor. Built in 1907, the hotel combines a classic ambience with cutting edge offerings. Highlighted by the magnificent lobby and Laurel Court Restaurant and Bar, San Francisco's Grand Dame remains the preferred gathering place for locals and discerning travelers alike. Elegant surroundings, engaging service and today's most desirable amenities await you at our legendary hotel.

MAGNIFICENT ACCOMMODATIONS

The Fairmont San Francisco is a testament to luxury with 591 breathtaking guestrooms and suites. Many of these accommodations offer unprecedented views of the city and bay, with awe-inspiring vistas from every floor, given the hotel's prominent location

Atop Nob Hill. Room features and services include beautiful marble baths, plush terry cloth bathrobes, in-room safes, morning newspaper delivery, spacious work desks, multi-line telephones with voice mail and High-Speed Internet Access.

AWE-INSPIRING EVENTS

The Fairmont Hotel has been host to the most significant meetings and events held in San Francisco. In 1945, delegates from countries around the world met in the historic Garden Room to draft the Charter for the United Nations. And in the fabulous Venetian Room, Tony Bennett first sang, “I Left my Heart in San Francisco.” Events such as these have made The Fairmont the premier gathering place in the city.

The hotel's recently refinished signature social and meeting venues are both opulent and cutting edge. One of the most notable of these special spaces is the world-renowned Crown Room. Set on the 24th floor of the Tower Building, the Crown Room offers unparalleled views of the entire San Francisco skyline including the Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz and Coit Tower. Our expert staff and state-of-the-art facilities help create the perfect venue for events ranging from Board of Directors Meetings to the grandest of galas.

UNFORGETTABLE DINING

Crowned by three ornate domes, the Laurel Court is our signature restaurant and bar featuring exclusive single vineyard designate wines. Located in the hotel's newly restored lobby, the Laurel Court serves as the centerpiece of the hotel. The culinary talents of our Executive Chef are showcased, using the freshest of local ingredients. A visit to San Francisco is not complete without experiencing The Tonga Room and Hurricane Bar. Consistently awarded for serving San Francisco's Best Happy Hour, The Tonga Room offers exceptional Pacific Rim Asian Cuisine in a tropical setting, including thunder and rain storms. It is the perfect escape after a busy day of meetings or shopping along Union Square.
