INTRODUCTION TO WHISTLER'S TRUE NATURE

On-site at The Fairmont Chateau Whistler, the Rooftop Woodlands Terrace, with its built-in fireplaces, barbecues, and a manicured herb garden, is a wonderful outdoor venue, ideal for welcome receptions and dinners. The large marquis tent holds group gatherings of up to 500 guests.

FEASTS OF CULINARY EXCELLENCE

Dining options at The Fairmont Chateau Whistler include The Wine Room's fine dining, The Wildflower's morning and evening classic style, Portobello's hip and casual deli and—the popular choice for visiting celebrities—The Mallard Lounge & Terrace. At the Mallard, guests can relax to live entertainment, sample the fine scotches and cigars in the exclusive Cigar Room, and stargaze outside around a roaring fire on the slopeside terrace.

Uniquely local tastes, such as “Tea at the Fairmont,” “Fondue at The Chalet” and exclusive dinners in The Wine Room's private Dining Room, highlight the perfect blend of authentic west coast cuisine and ambiance.

Creating delectable feasts for groups of 10 to 1,000, our Banquet Department and renowned culinary team of award-winning chefs present fresh and flavourful banquet dining—gala dinners in the ballroom, or four-diamond feasts at Lost Lake Park, the base of Blackcomb Mountain, or on a glacier—all with classic Fairmont flair!
